SCRIPTURE

Proverbs 3:13-23.

Happy is the man that findeth wisdom and the man that getteth understanding.

For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

She is more precious than rubies; and all the things that thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honor.

Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her, and happy is every one that retaineth her.

The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath He established the heavens.

By His knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

So shall they be life unto thy soul and grace to thy neck.

Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

the latter part of October. Committees were named to care for the parcels secured and for aprons which are to be sold. The time yesterday was very profitably spent in sewing carpet bags, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Fowler, assisted by Mrs. C. E. Bryan, Mrs. J. R. Brooks and Miss Lizzie Carse.

BAPTIST MONTHLY COFFEE.
The monthly coffee of the ladies of the First Baptist church, held yesterday at the home of Mrs. F. H. First, Twentieth street, was largely attended. The late garden flowers were used throughout the rooms. The ladies busied themselves with their fancy work while they chatted and were served with refreshments late in the afternoon, Mrs. First being assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mary Bailey.

LITTLE-LINDBLAD WEDDING.
Miss Cora Lindblad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lindblad, 900 Twenty-ninth street, Moline, and William Littig of this city, were married last evening in the home of the bride, about fifty relatives and very intimate friends witnessing the nuptials. The color scheme was lavender and white and was most out in the elaboration of decorations of the home, as well as in the refreshments served. Mrs. C. H. Tuedson played the Lohengrin Bridal Chorus as the wedding party advanced, led by the Rev. R. Wilbur Babcock, who read the ring service. Following the ceremony came Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Lindblad, parents of the bride, who had been married 44 years ago on the same date. Mrs. Lindblad wore a gown of lavender voile and carried a white bridal bouquet. Advancing from a side room came the bridegroom with his best man, John Lindblad, who last evening the bride attended by her sister, Miss Ethel Lindblad.

The bride wore a gown of white French voile made over ivory tulle, the costume being entirely veiled with white silk tulle trimmed with white ribbon. The wedding gown was adorned with the tulle tulle veil, with double upstanding ruffle crowned with smilax and white rosebuds. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid's gown was of white organdy, with which she carried pink lilac roses.

After the ceremony the bridal pair of 44 years ago were asked to come forward and Rev. Mr. Babcock presented them a $20 gold piece from their children and their new son. After the wedding supper the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Esther Carlson. The wedding also threw a bouquet and this fell to the lot of Louis Karliwarth, Jr., of Davenport.

The bridegroom is son of Mrs. Jennie Littig of Rock Island. His bride is a young woman of fine personality and character and is active in Baptist church circles. She is a member of the Anomia class and of the church choir. She has been a fitter at the New York store for the last five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Littig left last night for a wedding trip without disclosing their intended destination to their friends. The bride's going-away suit was a tailored affair of checked gown and white suit with which she wore a hat in keeping. They will make their home on their return in Rock Island.

MRS. DAVIS AGAIN HOSTESS.
Mrs. T. B. Davis entertained at the last in a series of three luncheon parties yesterday at her home, 605 Twenty-sixth street, when she had as her guests members of committees of the Woman's club. Aaron Ward roses and snapdragons were used about the room. A delightful afternoon of sociability was closed with a two-course luncheon.

Hunley in Dry Arizona.
Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 23.—The prohibition coast-to-coast campaign left here early today for Arizona where a light day's work ahead. Only three meetings were to be held, two at Wichita and Glendale during the afternoon and one in Phoenix at night. Sunday was to be spent in Phoenix, where meetings were to be held in local churches.

hat for traveling. The groom is president of the Tri-City Federation of Labor and is well known in the tri-cities. With his bride he has the best wishes and congratulations of a large circle of friends. An out-of-town guest at the wedding was the bride's sister, Miss Anna Ohge of Denver.

MAKE PLANS FOR WINTER.
A meeting of the Ever Ready class of the First Methodist Sunday school was held Thursday evening at the home of Miss Marion Brown, 1019 Sixteenth street. There was a good attendance of the members who discussed plans for the winter's work during the early evening, later enjoying a social time and refreshments. The next meeting will be held in a month.

J. C. CLUB ENTERTAINED.
The birthday anniversary of Mrs. William Hurst, 4110 Fourteenth street, was celebrated by a most delightful meeting of the J. C. club Friday afternoon, the club meeting only on the birthdays of the members. Twelve were present, spending the afternoon profitably and delightfully in crocheting. Golden rod and asparagus fern were used in profusion throughout the rooms of the house. The luncheon table where a three course repast was served at 4 o'clock had as its centerpiece the birthday cake iced in white and trimmed in yellow roses from each of whom a card was received. After the cake was cut each of the guests was presented with a rose and candle as a favor. The electric light bulbs in the dining room were covered with the yellow paper, casting a subdued glow over the room. The club will be entertained at its next meeting at the home of Mrs. A. L. Lubnow, 4107 Fourteenth avenue, Oct. 19, when the birthdays of three young girls, members of the club, will be celebrated.

REBEKAHS OBSERVE 65TH ANNIVERSARY.
The 65th anniversary of Eudora Rebekah lodge, No. 73, was fittingly observed last evening, about three hundred members and friends gathered at Odd Fellows hall for the occasion. A program was given in the early evening; refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in later. The program numbers follow:

Selection—Orchestra.
History of the organization of Rebekahs—William Guldenzepp.
Reading—Miss Gladys Dunneavy.
Vocal solo—Miss Mamie Campbell.
Selection—Orchestra.
Reading—Miss Margaret Carnaghan of Milan.
Scotch dance in costume—Mrs. John Thompson.
Vocal solo—Miss Bessie Freistat.
Piano solo—Miss Mary Gordon.
Selection—Orchestra.

NEW CARPET RAGS.
The Mission and Aid society of the Oak Grove church held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the church when the time was spent in sewing carpet rags. The meeting was largely attended, the ladies enjoying a social time and refreshments at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting will be held in two weeks.

TO HOLD ALL DAY MEETING.
The Ladies Aid society of the Edgewood Baptist church held a business meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Post, 614 Forty-third street, followed by a delightful social hour. Plans were made for an all day meeting to be held next Thursday at the church when a hot dinner will be sold at noon, not only to the members but to any who wish to attend. The refreshments yesterday served very nice refreshments at the close of the afternoon. Garden flowers were used to brighten the rooms.

PLAN COFFEE AND PARCEL POST SALE.
At a meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the United Presbyterian church, held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Fowler, 1203 Twelfth street, plans were made for a coffee and parcel post sale to be held

OFFER FREE SCHOLARSHIP.
Miss Ethel Daugherty, professionally known as Miss Margaret Daugherty, formerly of Rock Island, and Miss Anna Hughes of Minneapolis, are at the head of the Northwestern Institute of Musical Art in Minneapolis, a school which embodies in its curriculum the highest ideal of musical culture for voice and piano. This school is making the following offer of free scholarships in piano and public school music. It has been observed by educators at all periods of the history of the race that frequently among the most gifted of the young people are some who are not sufficiently well provided with this world's goods to pay for their education in coin of the realm. In order to obviate this difficulty the directors of the Northwestern Institute of Musical Art, Minneapolis, Minn., have decided to offer one whole and one part scholarship in each department, such scholarship being conferred only upon applicants passing a sufficiently high grade in the entrance examinations, and its continuance throughout the year being conditioned upon the application and progress of the student and upon his loyalty to the school. Applicants for these scholarships should register in advance for the examinations which will be held during the first week in October. In addition they will be required to present the testimony of some reliable person as a guarantee that they are in earnest and are deserving of assistance. Applicants from the tri-cities may pass a preliminary examination before a committee consisting of Mrs. F. K. Rhoads, 1032 Twenty-second street, Rock Island; Mrs. L. C. Daugherty, 1138 Second avenue, Rock Island; Miss Katharine Gest, 1203 Second avenue, Rock Island.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY MEETS AT ANNEX.
The Misses Helen and Agnes Johnson were hostesses last evening to the members of the Young People's society of the First Swedish Lutheran church entertaining at the church annex. Fifty of the members and friends enjoyed the evening, an indoor track meet providing much entertainment and proving a delightful feature. Other games were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

TO HAVE RECIPROCITY DAY.
The Rock Island Musical club has arranged with the Monmouth Music club for a reciprocity meeting to be held in March and the event which will be an innovation here promises to be interesting. Local talent who will represent the Rock Island club will be Miss Notavema Steck, piano, Miss Esther Malmrose, voice, and Mrs. J. E. Clarkson, reader. From Monmouth will come Mrs. L. E. Bright, baritone, Miss Katharine Finley, violin, and Miss Agnes Christopher, piano.

MacGOWAN-Ohge WEDDING TODAY.
The marriage of Miss Clara Ohge, daughter of Mrs. Sophia Ohge, 1201 Twenty-sixth street and Charles J. MacGowan of Moline, was an event of this afternoon, the ceremony taking place at 4 o'clock at the parsonage of the German Evangelical Lutheran church, Rev. F. J. Rolf officiating. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Musfeldt, the latter a sister of the bride, were the attendants. The bride wore a white organdy dress over satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her attendant was gowned in white organdy trimmed with satin and carried pink roses. After the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, about thirty guests being served. Pink and white, the wedding colors, were carried out in roses and asters with which asparagus fern was used. The wedding cake formed the centerpiece for the bride's table which also had a large white wedding bell centerpiece. Mr. and Mrs. MacGowan leave this evening for Chicago, New York and other eastern points and will be at home in two weeks in a new home at 3113 Thirteenth avenue. The bride wore a broadcloth suit of midnight blue, a cream colored waist and a large black

HAIR and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My hair is getting gray at 18, and no one wants to be gray so young. I have used sage tea since the first of July, but it hasn't done any good. Wetting my hair has kept me with a cold. My hair isn't oily. Can you tell me why the tea hasn't colored my hair? Does it have to be used in the evening?

(2) Can you tell me something else to use that will not give me a cold and will not be too expensive?

(3) Are the hair dyes advertised dangerous?

(1) The tea ought to have colored your hair. It does not need to be used in the evening.

(2) Walnut shells make a stain that is almost black and an English preparation for walnut dye suggests rubbing the hulls from the druggist, chopping and putting loosely into a large-mouthed jar. A preserving jar is good. Enough alcohol is poured over this to cover it. This stands for a week tightly covered, then the liquid is poured off. The husks are pressed then and a second liquid added to the first. This done, the husks are covered with water and simmered for 15 minutes. Again they are strained and the water, when cold, put with the alcohol. A heavier shade is made by boiling the water, always hot, and the husks are rubbed through a pulp. This is also strained through a muslin, and when cold the alcohol is mixed with it.

This stain or any other will be useless if the hair has not been previously washed and dried before the coloring. The least trace of grease prevents the dye from adhering, and for this reason soda or ammonia in the washing and rinsing waters become imperative.

Massage your scalp until the coloring dries and then you ought not take cold.

Hair dyes injure the roots of the hair.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am very much in love with a boy who seems to like me, but he does not love me. He comes to see me often and many times when he has made a date he phones

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am 25 years of age. I am engaged to a very nice clean boy, and I was asked to marry him and my mother refuses to let me. What shall I do? He seems to love me as dearly as I love him. My father knows of our love. Do you think we are too young? Do you think that is the reason my folks won't let me marry? FREDERICK MAGGIE.

You are not too young. Your father thinks he has reasons for not liking the man. Have your father tell you his reasons and then consider them calmly.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Right in the corner of my eye, by my nose, I have something that looks like a wart, but it isn't a wart. It is soft and seems to be stretched skin. Have you any idea what it is and how to get rid of it? WORRIED.

Your tear duct is enlarged. Don't rub it and irritate it and it will return to its normal form.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THE TABLE.

Fruit baskets—Take oranges, cut off a round piece from top of each (for the cover to the basket) about an inch from the top of the orange. Cut two little squares out of the cover, for places to life off cover when ready for use. Scrape pulp from oranges and have prepared celery cut in tiny pieces. Tokay grapes peeled, halved and pitted. Begin to fill baskets by putting in layer of orange pulp, another of celery, another of grapes and continue until space is filled, then add juice and sugar. If on a diet and not allowed sugar, it is very palatable without it. Serve on a plate on which small dill has been placed.

Creamed Peach Pie—Peel, stone and halve ripe peaches. Line deep pie plate with puff paste and lay peaches in this. Sprinkle thickly with sugar and fill with cream sauce. To make cold, a cream sauce. To make this cold half pint milk and thicken it with a tablespoon of cornstarch rubbed smooth in a little cold water. Add two tablespoons sugar and frothed white of one egg. Boil together five minutes and set aside to cool. When pie is done, carefully lift top crust and fill pie to overflowing with the cream sauce. Replace crust and set in cool place. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and eat very cold.

Orange Shortcake—One and one-half cups flour, one-half cup cornstarch, three teaspoons baking powder, one-half cup butter, one cup granulated sugar, two well-beaten eggs, one-half cup milk, one-half teaspoon vanilla, two stiffly beaten egg whites, six large oranges, one-half

Two gallons of large oysters, drained and rinsed. Pour one quart oyster juice in one quart of vinegar over fire, scald and skim till clear, add one tablespoon cloves, one tablespoon mace, one tablespoon salt. Scald one minute, then throw in oysters. Let them come to a boil. The oysters should be picked the day before being wanted, as they get tough if they lay a few days.
